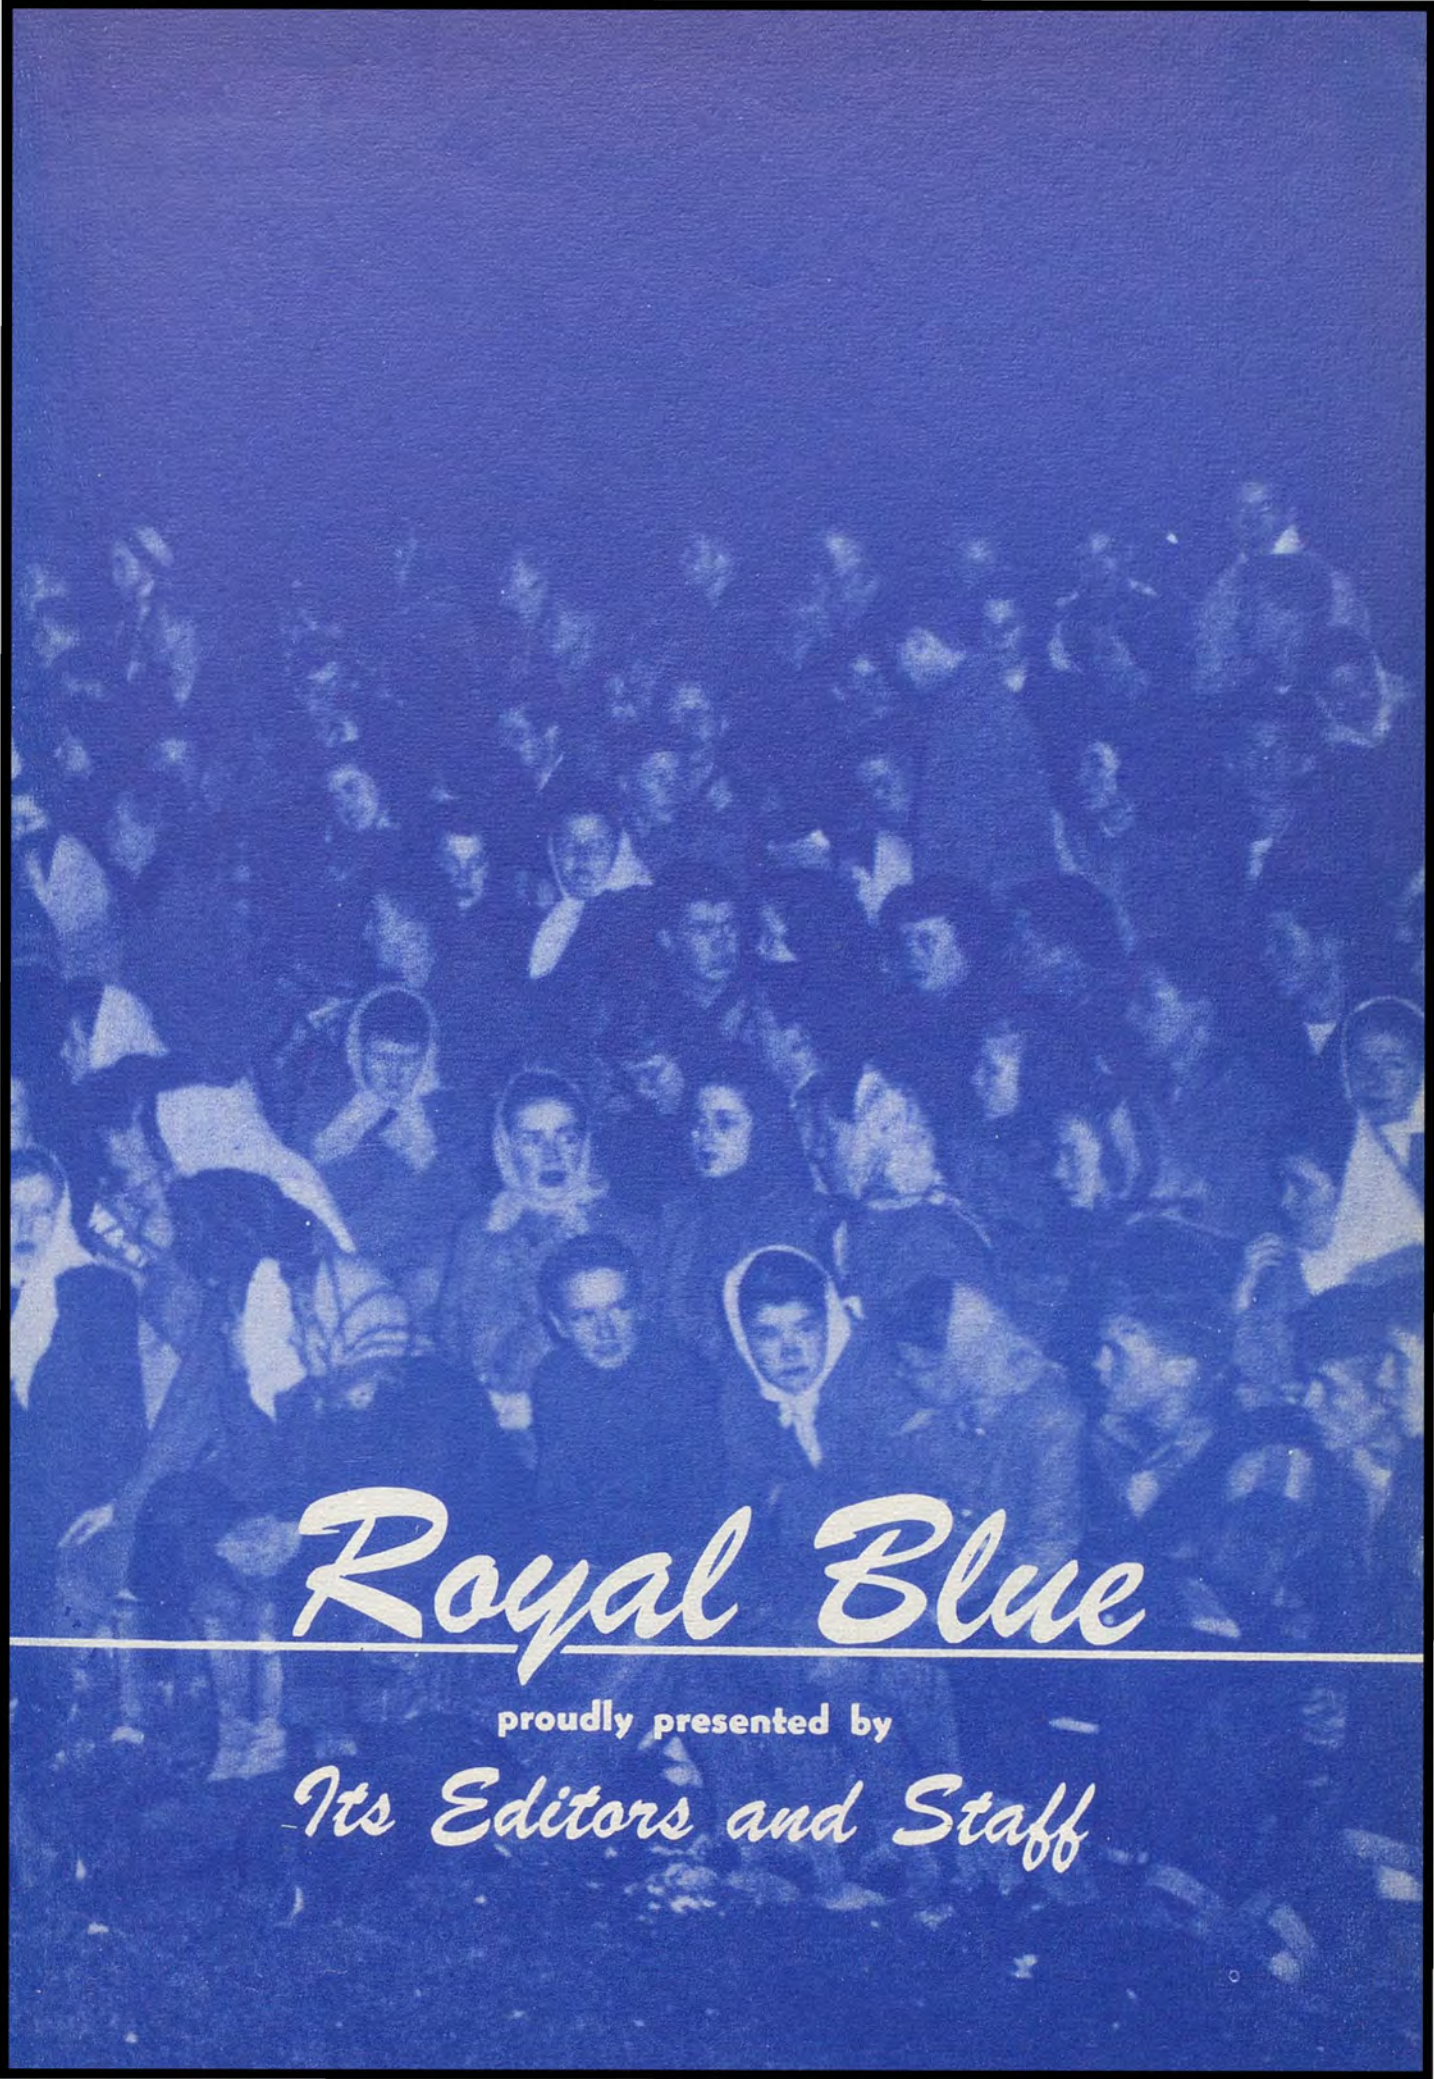
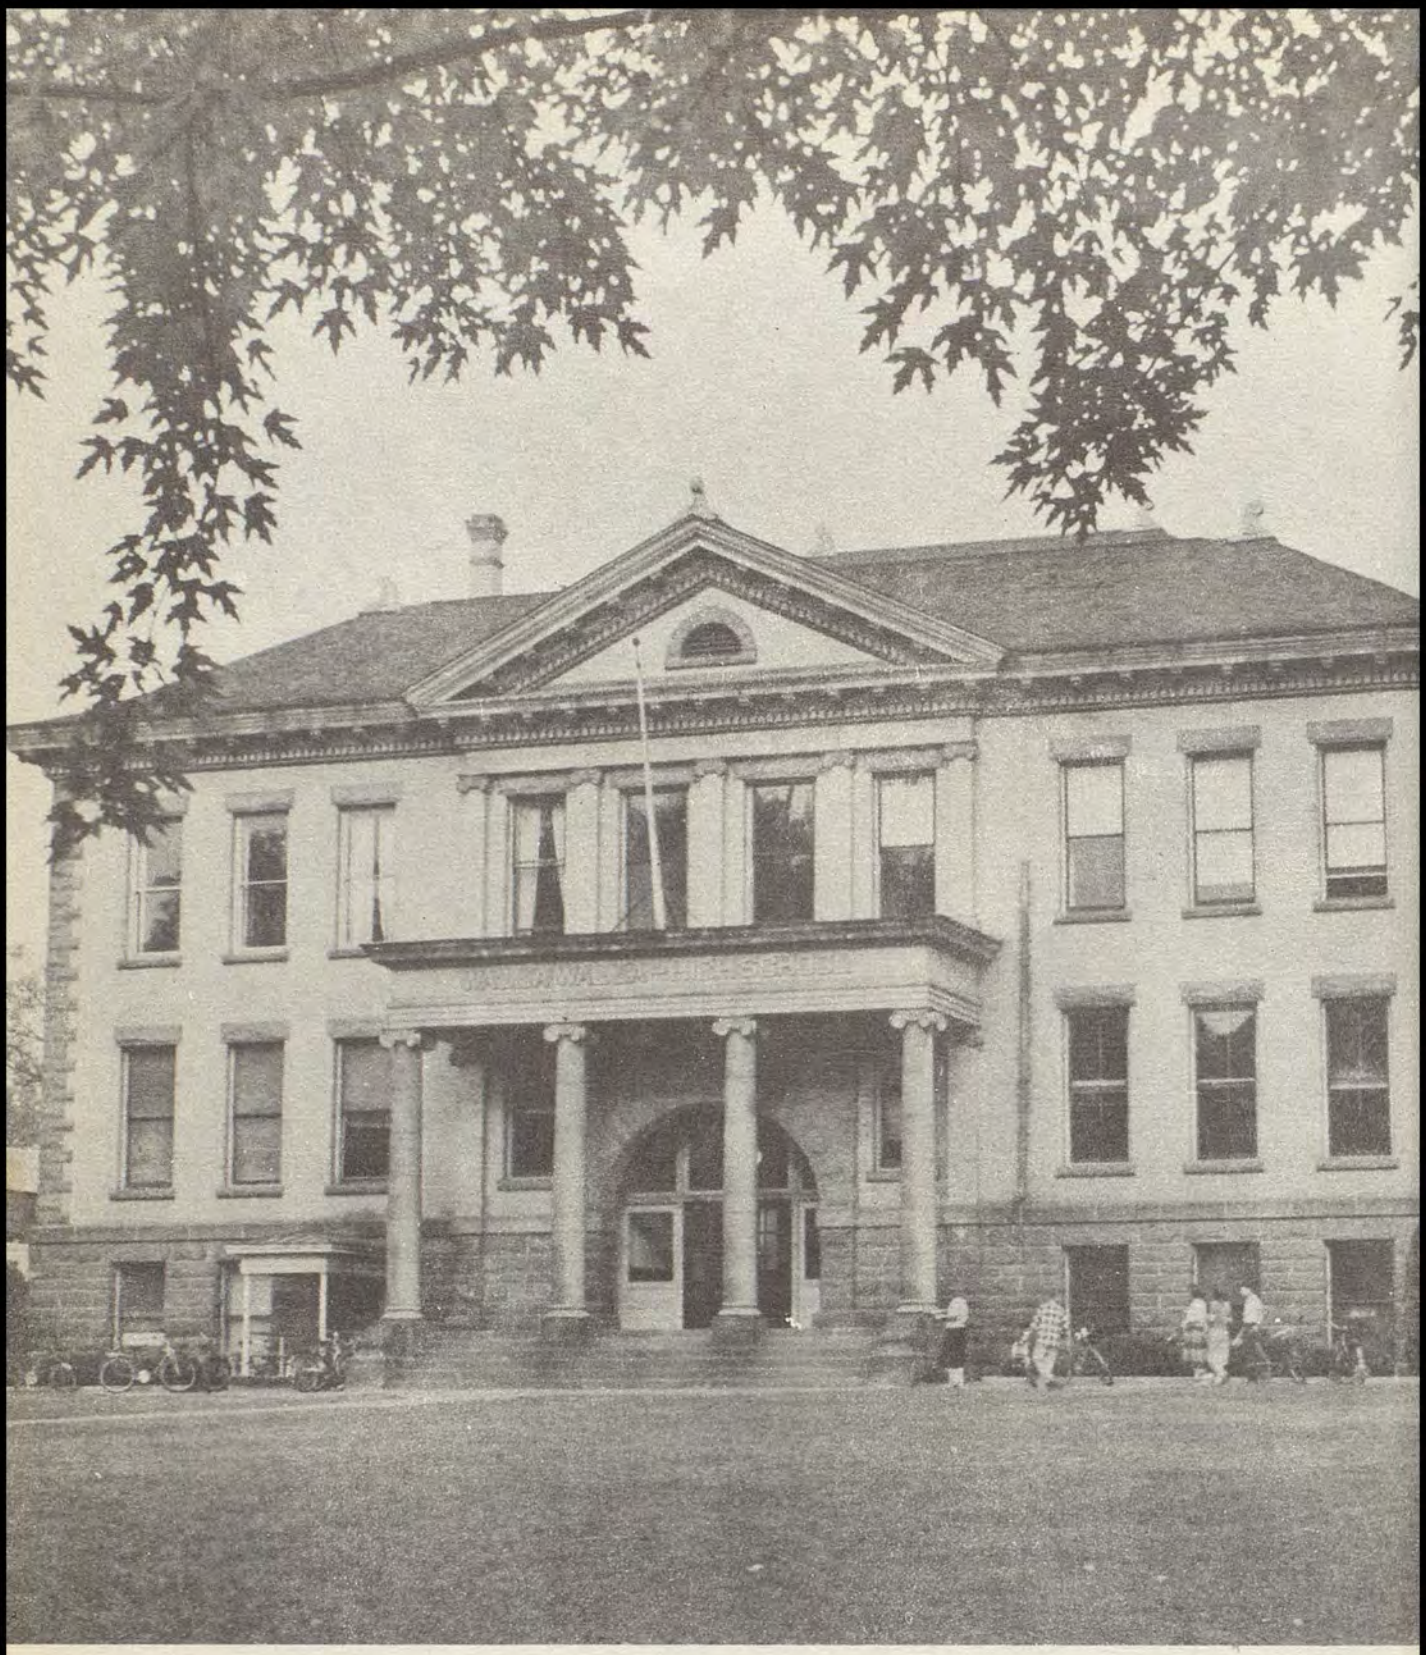
The 1949

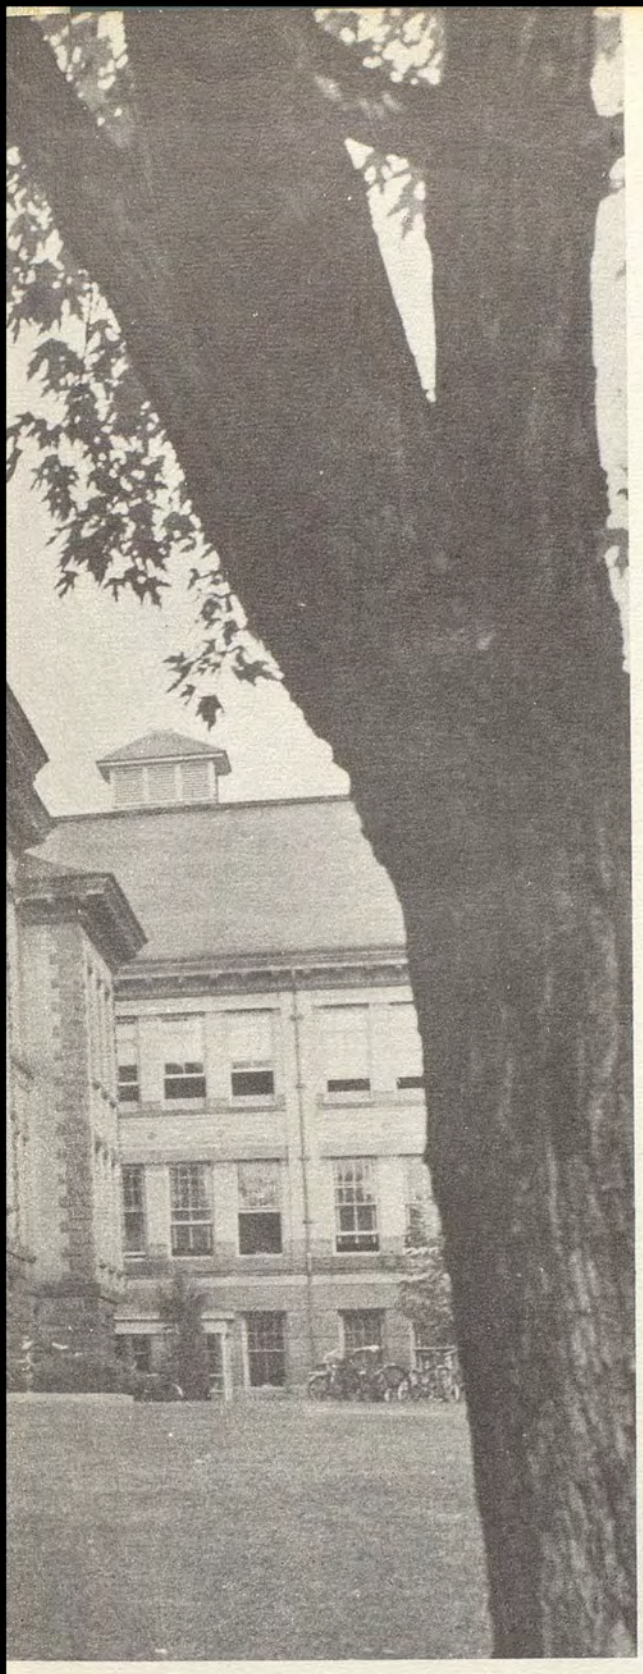


Royal Blue

proudly presented by

Its Editors and Staff





To the graduates and friends of Walla Walla High School, who so loyally support it, we, the students of Wa-Hi, gratefully dedicate this 1949 Royal Blue.

Administra

This Annual is the product of a student activity that deserves the support of every member of the school. In the years to come you, as a graduate of the school, will forget the organizations, the personalities, and the incidents connected with your years here unless you have this little book to refresh your memory. The farther away you get from your school experiences the more the Annual will mean to you. Keep it at hand. It will be a source of constant enjoyment.

We hope that you will remember Wa-Hi—with pride and affection. The school is what you and thousands of others, have made it. It is a community within a city, a youth-state, active, hopeful, sound, and happy. Those leaving it—after four years, that is—are better citizens of the U. S. than they otherwise would be.

Boost for the old school, now and later. Knockers are usually poor builders. Loyalty to a good cause benefits both parties.

W. A. LACEY

SUPERINTENDENT

All things may be either good or bad: ice cream, a play, or a book. Memories are no exceptions, they must be pleasant or unpleasant. The activities and accomplishments of the student body this year have been such as to provide pleasant memories in the years to come—especially for those who have had a part in the outstanding achievements described in this volume. In athletics, dramatics, music, the development of student government and in the phases of the extra-curricular program, we have enjoyed unusual success.

May I particularly commend the members of the Senior class and assure them that my memories of them individually and collectively will be most pleasant.

ARTHUR D. JONES

FACULTY

Again this year, the faculty, which forms the backbone of all progress and activity at Wa-Hi, has had an extremely active year. Serving as class advisers, club advisers, and on faculty committees occupies thier spare time of which teachers have such a small amount.

Class advisers for the past year have been: Freshman—Pete Hansen; Sophomore—Dollie Corn; Junior—Myrtle Falk; and Senior—Mr. Jones. The remaining faculty members are divided into various faculty committees the chairmen of which are: Discipline—Ralph Emigh; Gate—Paul Reed; National Honor Society—Juliana Draper; Guidance—Glenn Ledbetter; Flower—Lillian Lindner; Social Affairs—Grace Houghton; Visual Education—Alice Kenyon; and Publicity—Florence McGovern.

With the addition of four new members, the teaching staff has grown to forty-five. Miss Nell Bardwell and Mrs. Georgia May Gallivan are the new members of the English department. Mr. Conrad Stoehr has joined the foreign language department and as a result, French has been added to the curriculum. Mimeographing has been extended from a one semester to a full year course. Charles McBride has become an assistant coach and a member of the history department.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Stan Wiley
PRESIDENT

Bob Fondahn
SECRETARY

Bob Andrews
VICE-PRESIDENT

Bob Burkhart
TREASURER

Under the leadership of the four student body officers: president, Stan Wiley; vice-president, Bob Andrews; secretary, Bob Fondahn; and treasurer, Bob Burkhart, the student body activities and business for the year were guided to a very successful conclusion.

To help in maintaining and promoting student activities the President chose the following commissioners: Joan Lee Robinson, assemblies; John Cunnington, hallways; Bob Hayes, buildings and grounds; Bob Williams, Shuffle Shop; Dick Beck, fire chief; Myron Skubinna, chief justice; LaVonne DeBeaumont, organizations; Norene McNeely, interschool relations; Dick Neher, bookstore; Pat Mace, stage, and Marie Johnson, publicity. Serving as honorary members, but none the less active, were Lucile Angell, Bob Oliver, Dick Garver, and Carol Cox. Besides maintaining and promoting the business of their certain offices the cabinet worked as a body in sponsoring the Homecoming parade and dance; presented an assembly; revised the Constitution and by-laws; promoted the passing of a bill making a double W the official letter for sports awards; and promoted the passing of many other bills including the assembly bill and the advisors bill. All in all the cabinet enjoyed another year of success and once again proved that students do have the initiative to govern themselves efficiently.

The Legislative Assembly was kept very busy the past year with canvassing for the Community Chest Drive, setting up the budget for the coming year and discussing and passing various bills. Under the leadership of Bob Andrews, the chairman of the Legislative Assembly, the year was completed with a very successful record of accomplishments.

The Student Court, under Myron Skubinna, also had a busy year. The court has the distinction of holding the longest court session on one case in the history of Wa-Hi student government. This certainly proved the desire for justice on the court's part and with this spirit it is easy to see that the year was a successful one. Serving on the fall session of the court as appointed by the president of the student body were: Sally Maxon, freshman; Homer Milbrath, and Joan Strange, sophomores; Carol Jean Carpenter and Jim Casper, juniors; and Dick Fleck, senior. Appointed for the spring session were: Ned Lange, freshman; Delora Tomlinson, and Merle Goble, sophomores; Marlene Oliver and Duane Lanchester, juniors; and Joanne Stringham, senior. Joanne deserves a special vote of thanks for her fine job of heading the court in the chief justice's absence.

GIRLS' FEDERATION

The Girls' Federation of Wa-Hi, under the capable leadership of Lucile Angell as President, has in the past year even surpassed its usual success. Elected to serve with Lucile were Norene McNeely as Vice-President, Joan Lee Robinson as Secretary, and Virginia Gettman as Treasurer.

At the beginning of this year, and of every year, the Federation has a party for all transfers put on by girls who sign up to work for it. The first frolic of the year was put on by both the Boys' and the Girls' Federations. This was a "Frosh Frolic," which, as the name implies, is for Freshmen who are admitted free. Senior counselling was started this year and has proven very satisfactory. Girls chosen to be counsellors are senior girls who are on the honor roll. They are assigned a certain number of Freshmen girls to whom they explain the organization of the school and give help and advise in adjusting themselves scholastically and socially to high school. The Girls' Federation party is a big event given by the Sophomore girls. Costumes are worn, skits put on, and refreshments served. The renovation of the Dean's office was a big project of Girls' Cabinet this year. All the work was done by the girls themselves with the exception of the painting of the ceiling and the laying of the new linoleum on the floor. The drapes were made by a committee and the painting was done at night after school. Another transfer party was given at the end of the first semester. The annual Senior Tea was given the evening of April 4. April 8 and 9 were the days of the Tri-State conference, held in Pendleton, Oregon, to which the Federation sent the president, the secretary, and two junior girls, with the Dean, Mrs. Houghton.

At the end of the first semester four junior girls, Barbara Berry, Marlene Oliver, Nancy Nessel, and Doris Proctor, were chosen to be members of the cabinet. These girls took the place of four seniors and are chosen because the experience gained will help them when they are seniors.

The Federation this year has had girls and the faculty working in complete unity and harmony. Without these two factors together the Federation cannot accomplish the standards set up for it. This is a word of thanks to the Cabinet, the Council, all the girls in Wa-Hi and to Mrs. Houghton, our Dean and adviser without whom Girls' Federation could not function.

BOYS' FEDERATION

During the school year of 1948 and 1949, the Boys' Federation carried out many activities. The student handbook called, "The Blue Book" was the main project of the year. It covered: Student Body Government, Student Body publications, social activities, school clubs, drawings of grounds and buildings, awards, departments, Boys' Federation and Girls' Federation, the Shuffle Shop, assemblies, dramatic activities, and the marking system and honor roll. This handbook was published for the purpose of acquainting transfers and freshman with the school, its activities and organizations.

Boys' assemblies were held each month and included a large variety of entertainment. The Washington State Penitentiary Band, the Wags, a basketball game between the faculty and the intramural homeroom champions, a football assembly, a magic act, and a film on the 1947 World Series were included.

The Girls' and Boys' Federations worked together to put on the Freshman Frolic at the beginning of the year and also co-operated to show the eighth graders around the school in the spring.

One of the main duties of the Boys' Federation is to carry out a successful intramural program during the school year. The intramural head, which this year is Dick Garver, is appointed by the Boys' Federation president. It is the duty of this manager to plan the games to be played, look after equipment, make public the games to be played and their results, and to figure up the winner of each sport. The Boys' Federation awards a cup to the homeroom with the greatest number of points at the end of the year.

The advisor for the Boys' Federation this year was Mr. Ledbetter. He was the originator of the "Blue Book" and should be given credit for much of the work. During the year he arranged for the incoming transfers to be shown around the school and helped many students with their subject schedules and troubles.

SENIORS

With graduation on May 26 and the sounds of "Pomp and Circumstance" in the air, the '49ers said "So long" to Wa-Hi. They were proud of their class and sorry to leave their high school days of fun, troubles, anxieties, and loads of happiness but eager to travel on to the other roads that fork off the path through high school.

Sometimes so many activities detract from the less exciting homework but Janice Knudsen, with her 3.9 (as nearly perfect as anyone could hope to get) and LaVonne DeBeaumont kept the class scholastic record at the very top of the books.

The class officers for the first semester were: Allen Klein, president; Jim Frogge, vice president; and Yancy Reser, secretary-treasurer. For the second semester, Nick Bussard served as president, Thure Ahlquist as vice president, and Louise Smith as secretary-treasurer. Both elections were knock-down and drag-out battles—almost as bad as the national elections.

The Senior Play, "You Can't Take It With You" was given early in the year. Was that a hint to the Seniors, to the underclassmen, or to both, to get as much out of high school as possible because they would never have the chance again?

The Senior Ball was held the last part of April, and the longed-for and awaited day of the Senior sneak came early in May.

The class of '49 wished the classes of '50, '51, and '52 as much fun and knowledge as they have gained in high school. Remember "You can't take it with you!"

JUNIORS

The class of '50 has by no means been idle their junior year. To start the year, Dwight Morrison was elected president and Vernon Schacht and Carol McLoughlin took over the duties of vice-president and secretary, respectively. Pat Wiley and Anita Steiner were the junior Girls' Council representatives, while Mardice Demaray represented the Junior Class on Girls' Cabinet. Dick Hawkins served as the junior member of Boys' Federation Council.

To conclude the year, Dick Hawkins, Roger Cummings, and Bill Nreman were elected president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively. Gloria Walker and Carolyn "Tudy" White took over the office of Girls' Council while Priscilla Clem represented the class on Girls' Cabinet.

Talent was one thing that certainly wasn't lacking. In the all-school talent assembly we found Dick Hunting as the "Cisco Kid", and Billy Clayson doing a musical(?) number. Jerry Jesseph and Bob McGowan presented one of their well known skits, "Joan's Other Husband." Lorene Mobley was in it, too, zipping over her marimba like a professional. The Juniors were not conspicuous by their absence in the school plays either. Bob Cowles, Jerry Josseph, Beverly Marcy, and Priscilla Clem displayed their talents in the all-school play. In the Girls' Federation play we once more see Bev Marcy along with Pat McGee and Iva Lou Biggs.

As far as music is concerned, the Juniors really have "It." Margaret Berry, Louise Sarver, Esther Baker, Nanette Newsum, Carol Jean Schmidt, Shirley Schmelzer, Pat McGee, and Dianne Lasater sang in the Junior Girls' Octet, while Rose LaRae Lott, Mary Fausti, and Gene Cherryholmes performed in the Double Mixed Quartet. The Portland Music Conference was attended by Mary Fausti, Louise Sarver, Gene Cherryholmes, Gordon Boyer, Ted Berry, and Charles Hiett. (Robert Hunt and Rose LaRae Lott, however, were detained because of measles.)

Among miscellaneous activities we find Priscilla Clem as junior commissioner of the Shuffle Shop. Anita Steiner won a free trip to Chicago for her outstanding 4-H work. Dick Ivester, Barbara Berry, Carol McLoughlin, Shirley Stewart, and Carole Seeley served on the annual staff. Carol Carpenter and Jim Casper served on first semester Court while Marlene Oliver and Duane Lanchester took over second semester. (Incidentally, Duane took second place in the district oratorical contest.) Barbara Berry and Marlene Oliver attended the Tri-State Girls' Federation conference; these two girls were also chairmen of the Senior Tea. Max Hellberg added State Farmer to his laurels.

Another thing the Junior Class has to brag about are its "brainy" students, fifty-nine of which were on the semester honor roll. Seven received straight A's.

Last but not least was the Junior Prom, "Up in Central Park", with happy-go-lucky Priscilla Clem reigning as queen. Lots of thanks go to the Junior Class and Dick Hawkins for putting on a dance to remember. Yes, as you can see, the class of 1950 has by no means been idle.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore class has proved itself capable of many various tasks, and they will prove to be able student leaders in their future years at Wa-Hi.

They had a successful year under the guidance of Miss Corn, Mr. McGrath, and the Sophomore officers who were LeRoy Deranleau, president; Dale Steindorf, vice president; and Bob Hammond, secretary-treasurer. Bill MacBoyle, Bill Davis, and Homer Milbrath held these positions during the last half of the year. Serving on Boys' Cabinet first semester was Bill MacBoyle and Vernon Atwood, second semester. Chosen to participate in Girls' Council were Beverly Reynolds and Carol Zier, followed the next semester by Helen McAuslan and Harriet Pierce. Georgia Burgess was a representative to Girls' Cabinet first semester and Evelyn Miller filled this position second semester. At the first of the year Joan Strange and Homer Milbrath were helping as justices in Student Court. The second half of the year, Merle Goble and Delora Tomlinson took these jobs.

Peggy Hunter, Barbara Long, and Joan Strange put forth a lot of work in the all-school play, "A Date with Judy." Working on the Journal staff were Joan Strange, Joan Sherwood, and Shirley Hignett. Beverly Reynolds, Pat Munsey, and Lillian Messer helped on the Royal Blue staff.

The Sophomore class has a sports team of which to be proud. The "B" footbal and basketball squads have gone through a successful season. There were several sophomore boys on the varsity football team. They were Bill Davis, Rex Gwinn, Wayne Heimbigner, Lester West, Merle Goble, and Bob Hammond. The boxing squad was also very progressive. The four bouts won by Wa-Hi in the district tournament at Dayton were won by sophomore boys: Bruce McKay, Steve Roeser, Lester West, and Paul Gleaton. Billy Davis was the only sophomore boy on the varsity basketball team.

The Girls' Federation put on a play, "The Spider", in which Mary Davis and Claudia Booth had important roles. The Sophomores put on a talent assembly April 27 which appealed to the enthusiastic audience.

In the music field there was an unusual amount of talent. The Sophomore Octet was composed of Dixie Allison, June Cochran, Carol Zier, Patricia Churchill, Justine Sires, Betty Jean Mell, Mary Davis, and Joyce McCarroll. Billy Gohlman was in the Double Mixed Quartet.

As you can see the Sophomores have varied talents and will be able to take over the duties waiting for them as Juniors and Seniors.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman class under the supervision of Mr. Hanson has had a very successful year. Officers elected for the first semester were President Louis Clayson, Vice-President Sally Maxon, Secretary Wanda Moss, and Treasurer Joan McClane. Serving in official capacity the second semester were President Del Klicker, Vice-President Gene Mason, and Secretary-Treasurer Sally Maxon.

Many of the members of the freshman class took part in the music department. The Freshmen Boys' Quartet, composed of Dale Warren, Dean Lodmell, Louis Clayson, and Ron Sawyer made many public appearances. The Freshman Girls' Sextet was made up of Sally Maxon, Ann Patrick, Joan Benefiel, Emma Jean Barrett, Helen Meinhart, and Phyllis Stoneman. The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs also sang at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The Freshmen Class is proud to have Joan Benefiel, Carolyn Reed, Dorothy Dippel, Clifford Brennen, Donna Thompson, Donald Braman, Earl Norwood, Jerry Norton, Charles Bland, Betty Ruth Gordon, Lawrence Johnson, Louis Clayson, Karl Swartz, Daryl Schreiner, and Bernardine Livengood as members of the Senior Band.

On the stage the class was represented by Sally Maxon who did a comedy number in assembly and by Janice McCowan who was in the all-school play and the Girls' Federation play. Backstage were Danny Sutherland, Daryl Schreiner, and Larry Delaney.

A number of boys were engaged in boys' athletics throughout the year. Among the outstanding participants were Del Klicker, Mert McGrew, Richard Proctor, Jack McAllister, and Harlow Tucker. There were a number of girls interested in sports, too. On the girls tumbling team from the freshman class were Dorothy Dippel, Virginia Ragsdale, Beatrice Hill, Nancy Johnson, Sally Cole, Marie Hanford, and Eva Harris. The freshmen girls made an enviable record in sports.

To close their successful year, the freshmen presented an assembly under the direction of Mrs. Gallivan and her assistants, Wanda Moss, Joan Benefiel, Louis Clayson, Louis Rodel, Dean Lodmell, and Danny Sutherland.

THE 1949 ROYAL BLUE

With the early start of school the last of August, the 1947 Royal Blue staff also got an early start on the long job ahead of them.

One of the first decisions of the staff was that because of increased costs of practically every material that goes into the making of a year book, we would not use the engraving process for our pictures this year. By cutting down the price of printing and by selling increased number of annuals, it was hoped that we could have an extra-special cover. With this thought in mind the staff and two other members of each class put on an extensive sales campaign for the 1949 Royal Blue. Results? Over 820 annuals were sold (a record number) and enough money raised to purchase the new and different cover that enfolds this book.

The sales campaign completed and the covers ordered, the staff settled down to the real work for the book's production. Gwen Willis, this year's editor, had as her very able assistants, Margaret Kimmerly, copy editor; Joan English, picture editor; Shirley Stewart, make-up editor; Carol Ann McLoughlin, business manager; and Dick Ivester, chief photographer.

On the copy staff were Barbara Berry, Lillian Messer, and Patty Munsey, while Beverly Reynolds, Carole Ann Seeley, and Ruthie McLean helped with the make-up. Cliff Hoovel, Orrin Anderson, John Jefferis and Priscilla Clem gave their time helping take the many pictures required.

The purchase of a new camera and an enlarger eased the job of the photographers very much.

The Staff was exceedingly fortunate this year in having the fine work of Art Shimbo who offered to draw our division pages for us. He also exhibited his skill as an artist by sketching the view of the gym, which appears on the end sheets, and the portaits of Mr. Jones and Mr. Lacey.

Dick Garver took time out from his many other school activities and used his sports knowledge to contribute all of the sports write-ups for this annual.

The end of March found the final deadline just a month away while each member of the staff found himself a little busier than the day before. Since twenty pages were added to this year's book the work on it was definitely increased also. Everyone was relieved when the last pages had been sent to the printers.

Of the many students and teachers who helped and cooperated with the work of the 1949 Royal Blue, none deserves more thanks than Miss Gray, the Annual adviser. Without her continuous assistance and advice this book could not be the success that the Staff sincerely hopes it will be to the students of Wa-Hi.

THE WA-HI DAILY JOURNAL

"Where's the glue?" "Aren't you through with that typewriter yet?" Oh, he CAN'T have a class. I have to see him this period."

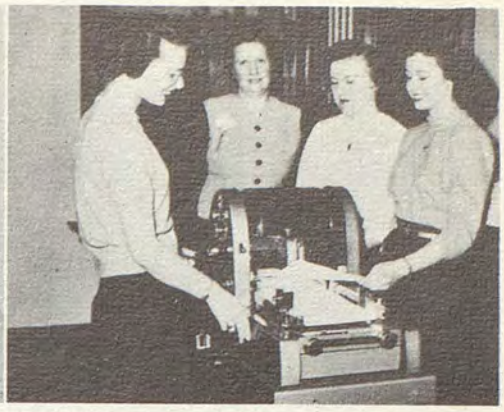
Those were familiar sounds to those who worked in the office of the Wa-Hi Daily Journal this year, but somehow a paper managed to emerge from the confusion every day.

The first problem facing the budding journalists when they returned to school in the fall was the housing shortage, having been evicted from their former home. The new Journal office is located in the small room between 301 and 302.

Once located, the staff began the 7th year of daily publication of the paper. Dick Garver headed the staff as editor-in-chief, with Jean Newman acting as associate editor. Marie Johnson, as news editor, was in charge of the front page, while co-feature editors Jean Gilpatrick and Jean Newman handled the back page. Business details were taken care of by Cleatis Locati, business manager. Most of the writing was done by the reporters who included Margaret Kimmerly, Donna Keeling, Loretta Cooper, Marcille Frank, Lele Livengood, Lola Livengood, Shirley Gradwohl, and Jo Heimbigner. Besides being editor Dick Garver also acted as sports editor. Serving as typist was Bob Cowles. The staff was helped out of difficulty time after time by their beloved adviser, Miss McGovern.

The advanced mimeographing department, with Mrs. McDonald as adviser, deserves recognition for producing the paper.

Second semester found Dick Garver and Jean Newman still heading the staff. Joanie Sherwood became assistant news editor, helping out Marie Johnson. Margaret Kimmerly and Marcille Frank took over duties as co-feature editors with Joan Strange as assistant. Dick Garver, now athletics editor, wrote up basketball and baseball, while Buzz Barrett, as sports editor covered boxing and track.



Forrest Patrick became assistant sports editor handling minor sports. Cleatis Locati was helped at her post by Loretta Cooper, assistant business manager. New reporters were added. The reporting staff included Shirley Hignett, Dorla Dee Darling, Vera Barbuto, Lela Livengood, Joan Heumphreus, Jo Heimbigner, Donna Keeling, and Lola Livengood.

Staff members worked to keep up the motto of the paper, "student news for the students", with coverage and promotion of music, dramatics, sports, student government, society, and other school events. All events up until noon are in print for the student body the following morning. Among back page articles, usually in the lighter vein, were columns, jokes, varied features, and news bits. School problems were aired through editorials, letters to the editor, and polls. The paper also incuded a free announcement service. Because it requires speed and accuracy to meet the daily deadline, close co-operation between staff members was an absolute must.

The Wa-Hi daily is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association. The Pacific Slope School Press, formed last year, claims the Journal as a charter member. Two members of the staff, Jean Newman and Joanie Sherwood, attended the PSSP conference in Seattle, April 1 and 2, bringing back many ideas to be put to work on the Journal. Since 1941, when the daily was first printed, Wa-Hi's paper has received a first-class honor rating every year, except in 1944 when the Journal received All-American, highest rating possible.

VOCAL DEPARTMENT

The vocal department, under the direction of Dorothy Griewe, has better than twenty percent of the Wa-Hi students enrolled in its various groups. The freshman boys' glee club, freshman girls' glee club, advanced girls' glee club and choir make up the large groups; and this year there have been five ensembles—double mixed quartet, junior girls' octet, sophomore girls' octet, freshman girls' sextet, and freshman boys' quartet.

The two main projects of the year were the Christmas concert and the spring concert, with the entire department participating in both. The stage for the Christmas concert was probably the prettiest Wa-Hi has seen. At the back of the stage was a huge, evergreen wreath with garlands on either side and six big white candles in the foreground. The front of the stage was banked with evergreens and on either side were silvered trees. All this greenery was lighted with many small blue bulbs and made a very effective picture.

The various groups have entertained Wa-Hi and the community with many performances. During the Christmas season alone entertainment was provided for over twenty organizations. At the time of this printing, eighty appearances have been made by the different musical groups.

It is the aim of the department to give as many students as possible the privilege of learning how to perform and to enjoy many different types of music and still keep a high standard in the work produced. It is felt that this has been accomplished this year. Many students as well as members of the community have made it known that they are proud of Wa-Hi's vocal department.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Senior band began the year with 47 members drawn from the three upper classes. For the first time those not in band previously were placed in junior band. There were 36 in this group. Fifteen were admitted into the ranks of senior band second semester. Mr. Krenz directed both groups as well as the orchestra. Senior band accompanied the football team to Pendleton and played for all home games. A pep band joined the basketball team for tournament games at Cheney and Richland. Small ensembles—trumpet trio, clarinet quartet, trombone quartet, dance band, and two brass sextets—were organized and furnished music for organizations, dances, and radio programs. Managers for the year were Jean and Joyce Newman, Dixie Allison, and Ruth and Dorothy Dippel. Gilbert Jordan was student director, and Bob Jones drum major.

Concerts given during the year included a Christmas program, the annual winter concert with Nancy Kirk as featured soloist, and a swing assembly for the student body. The orchestra played for performances of both school plays and participated in the Christmas concert along with both bands. The instrumental department had made 71 appearances before the last of March.

Twelve members of the department had the opportunity of participating in the Northwest Music Educators Conference held in Portland the last of March. Alice Riley, Richard Hawk, Anita Steiner, Diane Gilbertson, and Beate Brink were chosen for the orchestra while Bob Jones, Eddie Aliverti, Nick Bussard, Genevieve McKinnon, Gilbert Jordan, Nancy Kirk, and Herb Berreth were picked for the band. Soloist and small ensembles participated in a contest held at LaGrande April 29. Because of the cost involved no large group represented Wa-Hi.

F. F. A.

The F.F.A. boys have been very active throughout the year carrying out the activities of their program of work with approximately sixty-five members participating.

During the first two months the members in the chapter entered their livestock and crops in the Southeastern Washington Fair. The F.F.A. judging team participated in livestock judging contests throughout the states of Washington and Oregon. Three members entered fat stock in the Portland International Livestock Exposition. The annual F.F.A. Barn Dance was held early in November with their honored queen Virginia Danielson ruling. Members helped during the open house of our new building in October.

The Walla Walla Blue Devil Chapter participated in the following activities: Crop judging contest, fat stock judging contests, and the fat stock preview held in Walla Walla. They also conducted Greenhand and Chapter Farmer initiations, a Parent and Son banquet, and a project tour. The chapter started a revolving Hampshire swine and a beef project. The chapter had a basketball team which played numerous games and concluded with a district tournament. In March, the chapter was host for a district meeting of five chapters which featured parliamentary procedure training. Various F.F.A. boys raised stock for entry in the spring fat stock shows.

All F.F.A. members keep busy during the year in carrying out their motto which is:

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"
Senior Play

On November 17, if you had stopped in at the Wa-Hi auditorium around 8:15, you would have seen a strange-looking character sitting at an antique desk, eating candy from a skull, and typing on a fifteen-year-old typewriter by the hunt and peck system. You guessed it, the opening of the Senior play, "You Can't Take It With You" was just as laughable as the rest of the play. Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman built their fast moving and side-splitting play around the erratic family of the Sycamores. Led by Grandpa Vanderhof, this unusual clan had members such as Essie, who had been taking dancing lessons for 8 years, her husband, Ed, who played the bass viol and printed menus for a hobby. Mr. Sycamore manufactured fireworks, and Penny Sycamore wrote plays because someone had sent her a typewriter by mistake 8 years before. The fun starts when the one sane member of the family, Alice Sycamore, falls in love with the son of a Wall Street broker, Tony Kirby. Tony and Alice try to bring the two families together. The course of action is to invite the Wall Street Kirbys to the Sycamore house for dinner. However, Tony gets the nights mixed up and the Kirbys walk in on a scene of utter pandemonium. The next hour goes from bad to worse and the situation, although funny, looks hopeless for Tony and Alice. The solution of the problem leads to a smashing climax and a successful Senior Play.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

The Wa-Hi auditorium buzzed with excitement March 17 and 18 as the curtain rose on the setting of the all-school play, "A Date With Judy."

The lively plot began when vivacious Judy Foster set her heart on becoming queen of the Community Relief Fund Drive. She set the sky as the limit in obtaining the winning amount of contributions for the fund. Her numerous schemes became so complicated that the entire Foster family plus all their friends were involved. Entering contests was only a beginning. Her ambitions rose to enormous heights as she attempted to turn actress for some quick money: result—no money. Writing false "true confessions" did nothing but convince the townspeople that her mother was a bigamist.

All seemed lost when her bitter enemy secured the most contributions, and was named queen. A timely attack of unqueenly hives put her highness in confinement and Judy, being next in line, reigned at the dance. The curtain lowered on a peaceful third act, a contented family, and a queenly Judy. So all was well—till the next day, that is.

ASSEMBLIES

Assemblies are designed not only to give entertainment but to educate as well. It has been the goal of Miss Meta Pfeiffer, faculty adviser, and Joan Lee Robinson, Commissioner of Assemblies, to carry out this idea. Unfortunately not all have been up to the high standards desired, but several have surpassed expectations.

For the second consecutive year the various service clubs have sponsored the "pay" assemblies. These have run a wide range of talent and interest. The Marionettes program seemed to be the most popular of these among the students. For the second time in three years, Solom Risk paid Wa-Hi another visit and again was received with enthusiasm. Mr. Turner, famous penman, displayed his versatility before an appreciative and astonished audience. A talk on astronomy was given by Harry G. Johnson, expert on such matters, who displayed several actual meteorites and showed pictures of the moon, stars, and craters. Several of the scheduled pay assemblies had to be cancelled, but it is hoped that they will be available at some future time.

Then there were the popular club assemblies featuring club talent. The keynote of these presentations was variety with the emphasis on humor. Several assemblies have been presented for so many consecutive years that they have become a tradition. Under this category comes the "King for a Day" Assembly, presented annually by the Girls' Sports Club. This year Bill Erdman was the lucky boy chosen to reign as king. Hi-Y presented their very beautiful religious assembly on Good Friday. Class assemblies have come into the limelight this past year, with the lively Junior Class assembly as an outstanding example.

The aforementioned were mostly humorous and entertaining, but not all the traditional events are of that variety. Two assemblies were dedicated to the traditional tapping of the National Honor Society. The Christmas program presented by the music department and featuring familiar and new carols sent the Student Body off in high spirits for the Christmas vacation. Award assemblies given in the fall and spring are of special interest to the majority of the students and are awaited with much speculation and anticipation.

The Legislative Assembly passed a bill which will improve the assemblies in the years to come. This has been the earnest desire of the Commissioners of Assemblies in the past and it has finally become a reality this year. A mixture of information and entertainment, well seasoned with humor, makes a good assembly schedule and it is hoped that this mixture has been achieved this year.

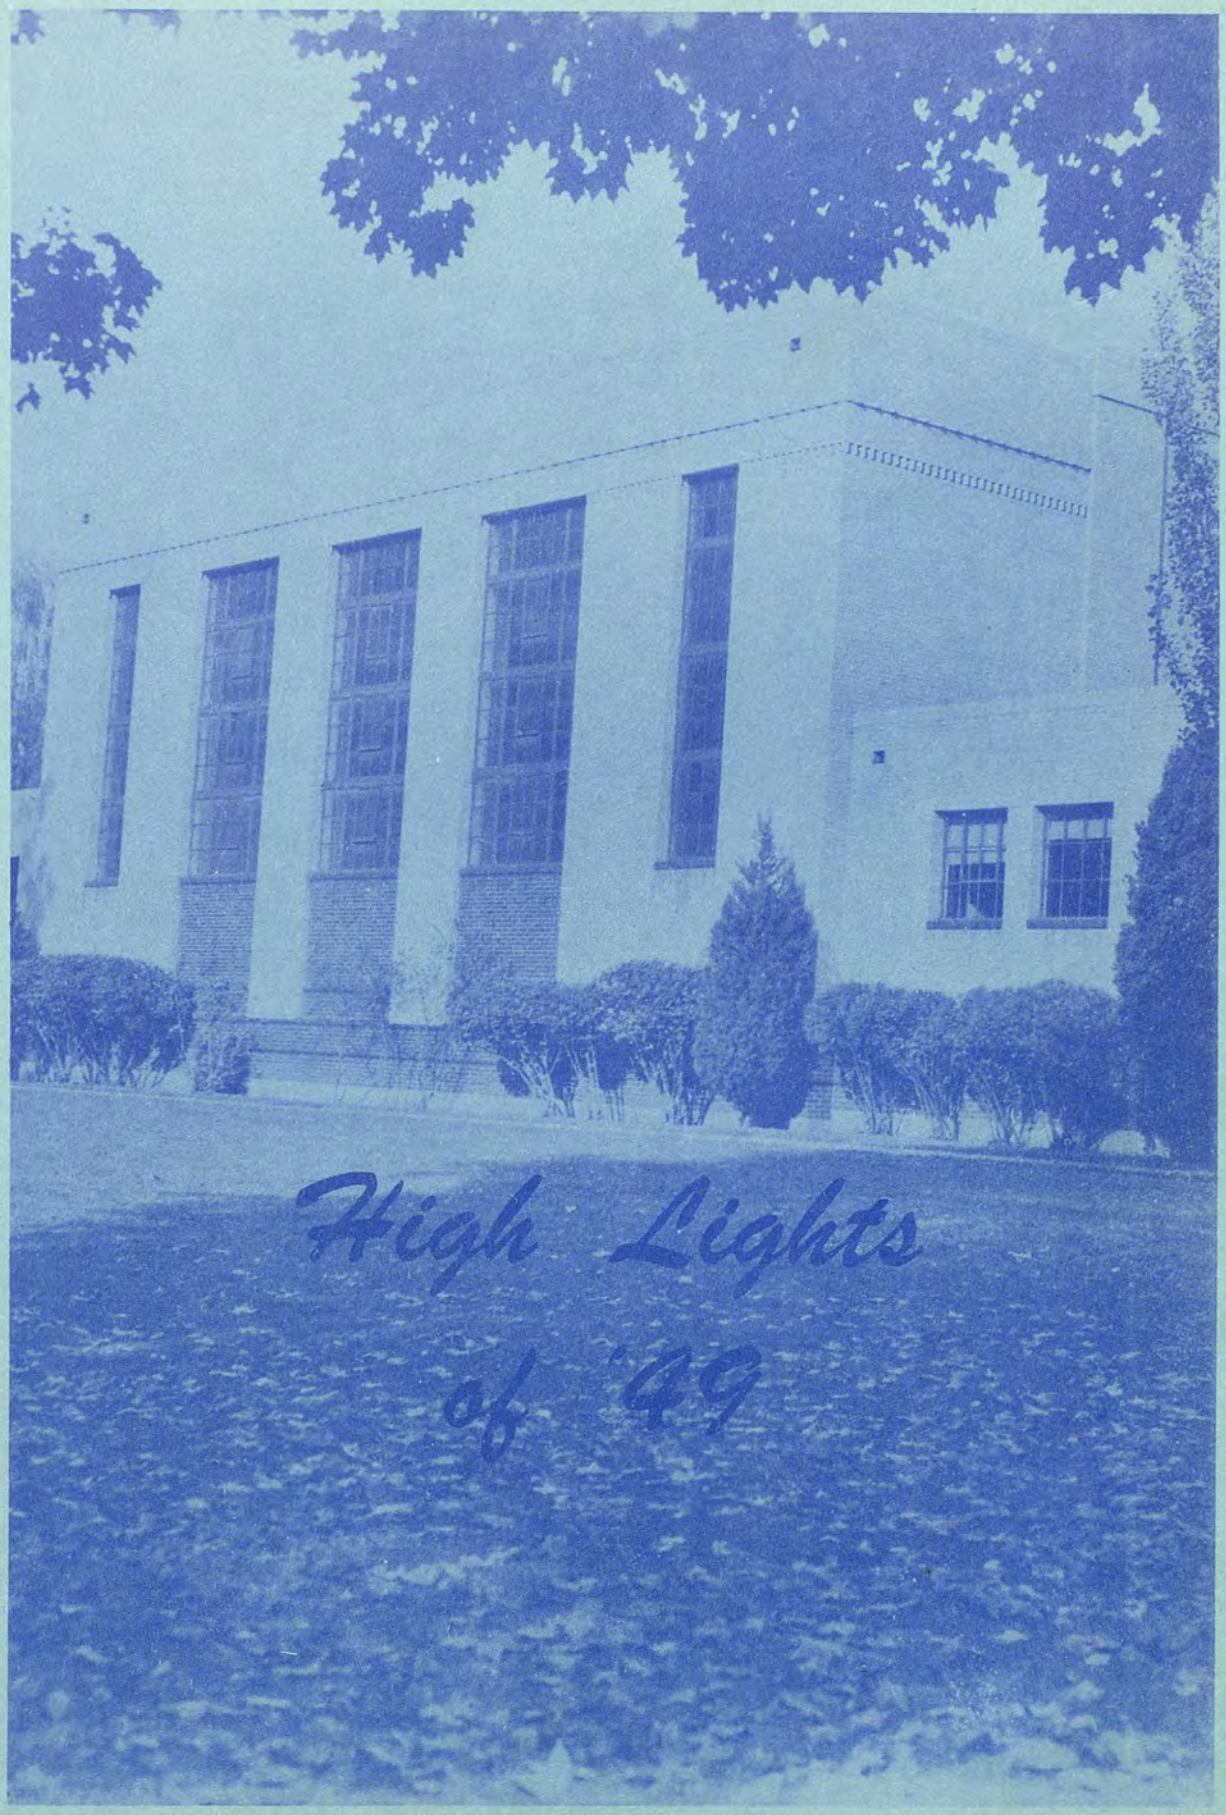
ADVANCED SPEECH

The activities of Advanced Speech were many and varied. The main activity, however, and the only one which lasted all year, was the preparation and presentation of three radio programs each week. Two of the shows were the "Stack of Hots" request program aired over station KWWB. On this half-hour student requests were played, and school activities were announced. The "Stack of Hots" was presented on Tuesdays and Fridays. On Tuesdays it was sponsored by the Dainy Maid Bakery.

The other production, Wa-Hilites, was presented on Monday nights at seven over KUJ. Its format included news, a sports commentary, and a feature. The features included interviews, on-the-spot recorded broadcasts, school talent, and short dramatic productions.

In addition to the regularly scheduled programs, several special broadcasts were made in conjunction with such community functions as the Community Chest and Red Cross fund campaigns. In February a six-member panel spoke before a luncheon of the Federated Women's Clubs of Walla Walla. Their subject was "Youth Conservation." Four of the five students who attended the University of Washington Speech Festival were from Advanced Speech.

Early in the year the Speech Department procured a tape-recorder. Later on a sound cabinet was built. This equipment greatly facilitated special broadcasts and dramatic productions. One of the final big events of the year was the annual Toastmasters' Club contest, held on May ninth. All in all, the students in Advanced Speech spent a very active year, and enjoyed a well-balanced Speech course.



High Lights
of '49

At the first of the year, when the Royal Blue staff planned this book, it had no idea of how unusually successful this year would be for Wa-Hi. On these pages the Royal Blue presents a review of the many honors received by the students of Wa-Hi in 1948-49.

Few high schools are as fortunate as Wa-Hi in having the cooperation and backing of an organization like the Walla Walla Booster Club.

One of the many activities of the group was assistance in making possible the purchase of the new band uniforms. Besides providing a score board at Borleske Stadium, the club advertised the various athletic contests, presented watch charms to all the players and gave a dinner for the team members of the district. The Booster Club has been active in stimulating the interest among Walla Walla people in the activities of the school.

OUR FOOTBALL TEAM

The Blue Devil football team has the distinction of being fifth in state competition, plus the added distinction of possessing two all-state players. Don Heimbigner and Joe Figgins were chosen by vote of the sportswriters of the state as members of the state first string. "Joltin' Joe", team captain, also received the greatest honor which can be awarded a high school football player in being chosen first string All-American halfback, the only player in the Northwest so honored this season.

The starting lineup for the Varsity Devils, with few changes, has been: Vern Schacht, fullback; Bob Morrison, left halfback; Joe Figgins, right halfback; Harold Dunham, quarterback; Bob Andrews, left end; Duane Weitz, left tackle; Al Rose, left guard; Bob Yeager, center; Bill Jones, right guard; Archie Reid, right tackle; and Don Heimbigner, right end, eight of whom are graduating seniors. The team has consistently run from a T formation and employed all types of defense.

The "little brown jug", missing from Wa-Hi for several years, is now reposing in the Wa-Hi trophy case as a result of the defeat of Yakima. 1948 saw another unusual event, for the Blue Devils took to the air for the first time in their history.

Coach Felix Fletcher announced the choice of Allan Rose as most inspirational player and Don Heimbigner and Harold Dunham were awarded the trip to the Rose Bowl game, sponsored each year by Walla Walla business men.

OUR BASKETBALL TEAM

After a successful basketball season under Coach "Boots" Wooten, the Wa-Hi hoopsters attended the district meet in Cheney where they played four games, winning three of the four. The loss was to Central Valley who went on to take the District Championship. Wa-Hi, by defeating Seattle Prep, became runner-up and eligible for the state meet at Seattle.

The Blue Devils lost the first game at the state tournament to Longview, but defeated Snohomish, Nooksack Valley, and Central Valley to take fifth place. However, the honors did not end there, for Rich Mead wa chosen for the second all-state team and Dwight Morrison for the third.

The state meet marks the end of high school basketball for four seniors: Lynch, Mendell, Andrews, and Dunham. The usual starting five during the past season has been: Rich Mead, guard; Dwight Morrison, forward; Larry Morrison, forward; Terry Lynch, center; and Bob Andrews, guard.

High point man for the season with an average of sixteen points a game was Rich Mead, with Dwight Morrison in second place. Rich also has served as team captain during the past season.

Seattle, here we come!

OUR BOXING SQUAD

From the Blue Devil boxing squad of about twenty-five the following boys, judged to be the best in their weight at Wa-Hi, were chosen to compete in the district tournament: LeRoy Deranleau, Bruce McKay, Steve Roeser, Don Mason, Mervin Shelton, Paul Gleaton, Bill Erdman, Lester West, Thure Ahlquist, Bob Morrison, and Bob Yeager.

The mittmen accompanied by their coach, Mr. Hanson, journeyed by car to the two day meet at Dayton where nine schools competed for the district crown. Wa-Hi returned with the championship and McKay, Roeser, West, and Gleaton as holders of district titles.

The entire Wa-Hi boxing season was unusually successful with the loss of only two matches, one to Mac-Hi and one to Clarkston. Bill Erdman was elected honorary team captain by his fellow teammates and was awarded the Fred Sporleder trophy. The best individual record was made by Paul Gleaton, who totaled nine wins to one loss. Alvis Lane and Charles Patterson served as managers for the Blue Devils.

OUR MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Northwest Music Educators Conference featuring a 200 piece orchestra, 250 piece band, and 500 voice chorus held in Portland, March 30 to April 2, was attended by a number of Wa-Hi students who were chosen to participate in this annual conference. Delegates from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, and Montana schools attend these meetings each year.

The applications of Mary Fausti, Shan Shawgo, Carol Cox, Louise Sarver, Paul Berry, Clarence Edinger, Rose LaRae Lott, Vinita Spray, Billy Gohlman, George Anderson, Charles Hiett, Ted Berry, John Cunnington, Gordon Boyer, Robert Hunt, Wallace Mann, and Gene Cherryholmes were accepted to sing in the Chorus under the direction of Peter Wilhousky, the Assistant Supervisor of Music in New York City schools.

Mr. Krenz, Wa-Hi band director, was honored by being chosen to pick the orchestra personnel. The Wa-Hi students among them were: Richard Hawk, Alice Riley, Beate Brink, Anita Steiner, and Diane Gilbertson. The entire orchestra uas under the direction of George Barr. Participants from Wa-Hi in the 250 piece band, directed by Frank Mancini, were Eddie Aliverti, Nick Bussard, Herbert Berreth, Bob Jones, Nancy Kirk, Genevieve McKinnon, and Gilbert Jordan.

With the exception of Lewis & Clark, Wa-Hi had more participants at this conference than any other school.

SPEECH

Five Wa-Hi speech students, with Marshall Alexander, Wa-Hi speech teacher, journeyed to Seattle to participate in the Speech Festival held at the University, April 1 and 2. Because of the late arrival of contest information, no discussion groups were arranged. Jean Gilpatrick and Nancy Ross were chosen to compete in the oral interpretation division and Duane Lanchester, Jerry Jesseph, and Bob McGowan in the extemporaneous speaking section. The judges awarded Jean and Nancy two of the three superior ratings in interpretation, Lanchester garnered excellent in extemporaneous, and Jesseph and McGowan both received good ratings. On the basis of these ratings Wa-Hi received third place.

OUR SKI TEAM

Under the direction of Mr. Al Haase, the Wa-Hi ski team competed in several high school meets this year. In January, Leavenworth, Washington, was the scene of a four-way meet, which included Wenatchee, Leavenworth, Waterville, and Wa-Hi. Both Wa-Hi and Leavenworth were only one point behind the winning team, Wenatchee. The Blue Devils were invited to the State Invitational four-way meet also held in Leavenworth. Yakima, Wenatchee, Franklin Hi of Seattle, Leavenworth, and Wa-Hi were among the schools represented. The last major meet was held at Spout Springs with Yakima, Leavenworth, and Wa-Hi competing. Wa-Hi won this meet by a margin of thirty points.

Blue Devil skiers who distinguished themselves in Wa-Hi newest sport include: Tommy Gardner, Bob Brown, Alan Cook, Bob Williams, Jack Haase, Miles Lodmell, and the manager, Dick Deffenbaugh.

The hopes for the future of this newly recognized school sport are bright, for the entire team, with the exception of senior, Bob Williams, will return to participate next year.

Everything but the skiis.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, as its name implies, is the nationwide scholastic honorary in high schools. Membership is determined by a faculty committee on the basis of service, leadership, character, and scholarship.

Members are tapped in the fall and spring. The top five percent of the junior class become members in the spring of their junior year. The second five percent are tapped in the fall of their senior year. The third five percent of the class, making a total of fifteen percent, are tapped in the spring of their senior year along with the leading five percent of the junior class.

Varied initiation programs are held within a short time of the tapping. Miss Juliana Draper, our adviser, and the faculty committee are our guests.

CLUBS

Clubs serve as the foundation of school social life. By sponsoring dances and frolics, presenting assemblies, taking care of the Shuffle Shop, and contributing money for various school projects, they play an important part in school life. The majority of the clubs have no special entrance requirement, other than the vote of the members, but some, such as Dramatics, Ski Art, etc., require some special skill or talent. Some, such as Legentes, are organized around a spcial interest. Each has a faculty member as an adviser.

These clubs are intended to develop responsibility and personality in individuals; provide an opportunity for service to the school; and an outlet for excess energies. A both longed-for and dreaded day occurs each semester as clubs initiate new members and the victims are seen dragging through the hills, longing for the day to end.

The climax of club activity comes each year at the spring award assembly, when a cup is presented to the club which is judged to have contributed the most to the school during the past year.

Without the various assistants behind the scenes at Wa-Hi, the school would not be able to maintain as smooth a schedule. Taking phone calls, selling paper and pencils, washing dishes, handing out and collecting attendance slips are only a few of the varied and necessary jobs performed by these capable people. They have definite responsibilities to meet, accept, and carry out effectively.. Usually the only reward obtained for these actions is that of experience.

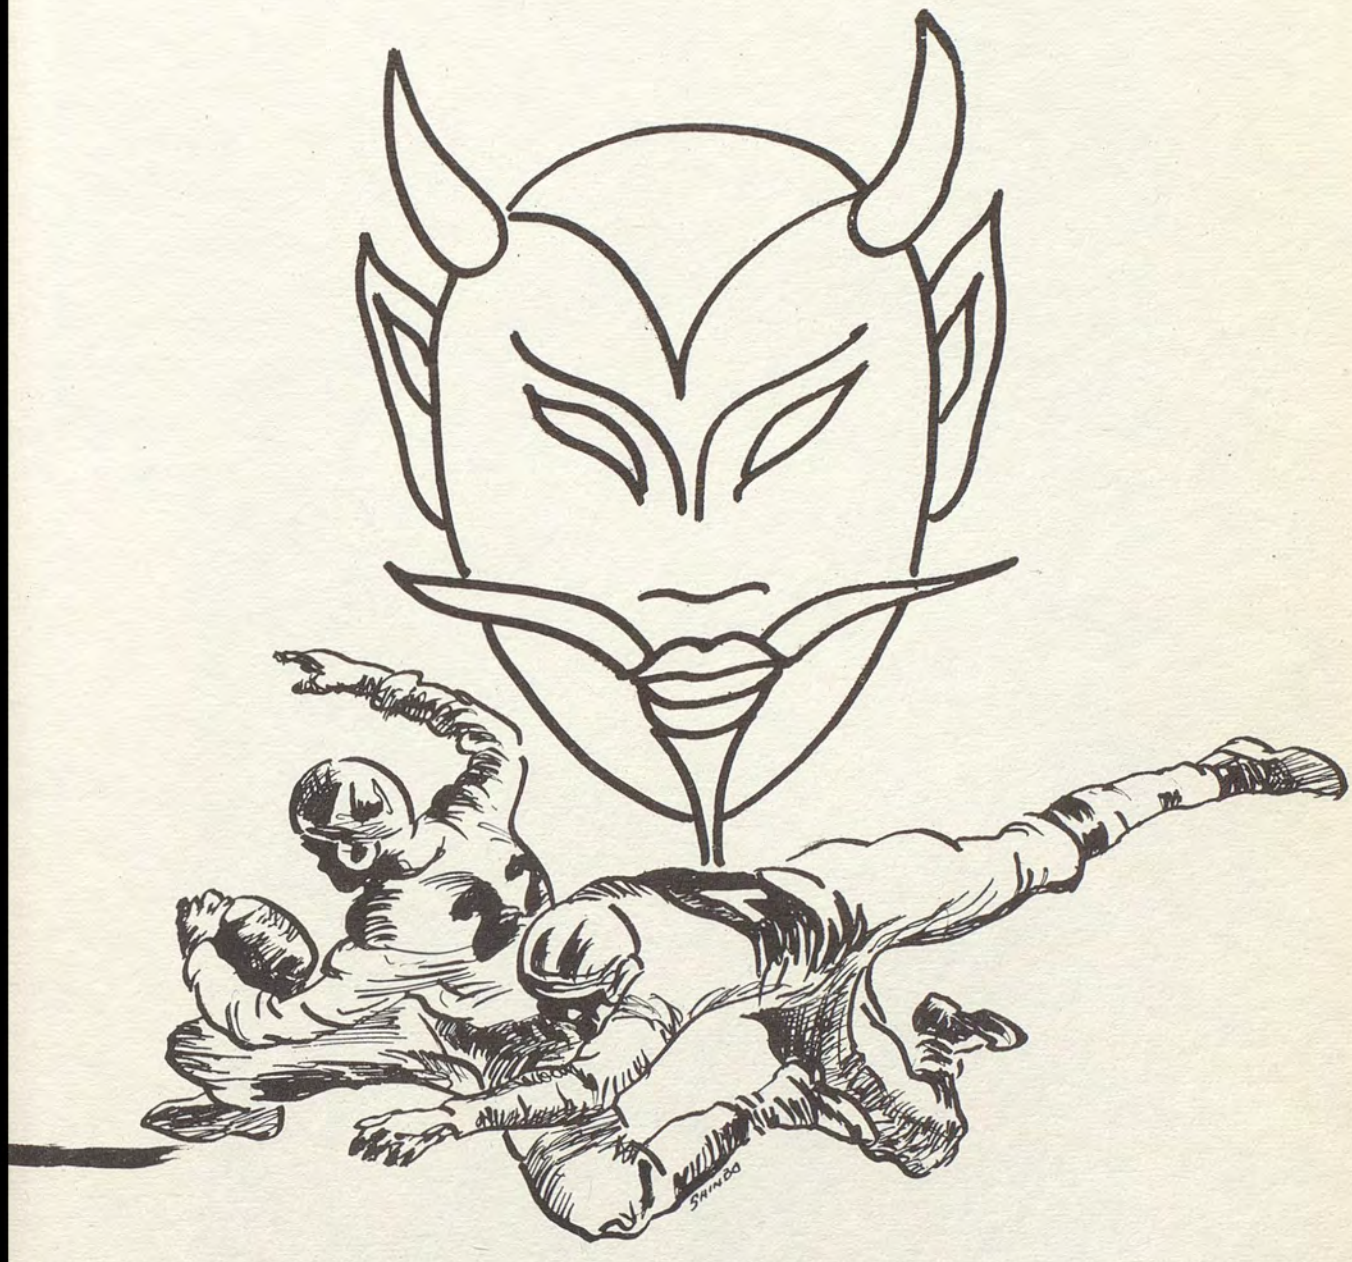
Sports



SHINSO

Joe Figgins, elected ot both All-American and All-State teams.

Don Heimbigner, All-State electee, awarded the trip to the Rose Bowl game.

FOOTBALL

King Football enjoyed his best season in many years at Wa-Hi, during the 1948 campaign. The Blue Devil pigskin packers racked up a total of nine victories against a single defeat. Walla Walla's football team was voted fifth best in the state by Associated Press sports writers throughout Washington.

Led by Coach Feli› Fletcher, the Blue Devils amassed a grand total of 296 points against their opponents' 80. The Devils' 296 total was second highest in the state.

Coach Fletcher was appointed assistant coach on the All-State team which plays the All-Seattle team in August. Coach Fletcher acted as backfield coach in the three-man coaching staff for the All-State squad. Two Wa-Hi players were selected by the Washington Coaches Association to play on the All-State team. Two two boys named to the state all-star aggregation were Halfback Joe Figgins and End Don Heimbigner. Heimbigner was acting captain throughout the season and played very good defensive ball as well as having glue fingers as an offensive end. Figgins, besides being the most consistent Devil ground gainer and scorer, was the place kick specialist for Wa-Hi.

Guard Al Rose was voted the most inspirational player award by his teammates. Quarterback Harold Dunham and All-State End Don Heimbigner were awarded the down-town businessmen-sponsored trip to the Rose Bowl. "Joltin' Joe" Figgins, All-State halfback, was elected team captain.

Seniors that saw their last high school football action in 1948 include halfbacks Joe Figgins, Myron Skubinna, and Bill Eastman; quarterback Harold Dunham; ends Do Heimbigner, Bob Andrews, and Terry Lynch; tackles Archie Reid and Dick Neher; guards Al Rose and Bill Jones, and center Bob Yeager. '48 underclassmen who are expected to carry the load in '49 include fullbacks Vern Schacht and Ben Phillips; halfbacks Bob Morrison, Bill Davis, Larry Morrison, and "Zeke" West; quarterbacks Roger Cummings and Ed Daugs; ends Dwight Morrison, Bob Hammond, and Wayne Heimbigner; tackles Gordon Boyer, Duane Weitz, Neil Van Winkle, Merle Goble, and Jim Casper; guards Gabe Joseph, Rex Gwinn, and Ted Berry, and centers Dick Fain and Dick Hawkins.

FOOTBALL

Traditionally opening its season against Mac-Hi, Wa-Hi got off to a good start by beating the Pioneers, 27 to 2. Next Wa-Hi beat a tough Pasco team 7 to 0. The next week the Blue Devils took to the air and made history by making the first airplane trip of any Wa-Hi team, but alas, the trip ended in early season disaster as far as the won-lost record of the Demons was concerned. Wa-Hi flew right into the center of a bunch of pesky Wenatchee Panthers and came out on the short end of a 20-27 score. Wa-Hi made a much more successful trip by bus to Yakima the following week, and beat the Pirates for the first time in four years, 21 to 19. The third trip in as many weeks brought them into the Spokane lair of the Central Valley Bears. The Bears were disposed of 24-0 by the Devils, and Wa-Hi came home to seek revenge of the Dayton Bulldogs. The revenge motive was carried out in grand style with every player on the Wa-Hi bench getting into at least two quarters of the runaway game, as the blood-in-eye Demons handed Dayton its worst football drubbing in history, rolling up 72 points to Dayton's 7. Clarkston was next to feel the wrath of the sizzling Satans. Wa-Hi beat Clarkston by the mild score, as compared with the week before, of 41 to 0.

The Devils next disposed of Pendleton 12-6, and Lewis and Clark of Spokane, 40 to 13. The Blue Devils finished up the season in style leading the Lewiston Bengals to slaughter, 32 to 6.

Wa-Hians, who were around in the fall of '48, saw a great coach and a great team in action with a record to match. It will be quite some time before any Wa-Hi team betters that record.

One of the highest honors, that can be bestowed on a high school player went to Joe Figgins when he was chosen All-American first-string back. The only boy in the Northwest this year so honored, he will participate in the All-American game next fall.

BASKETBALL

Wa-Hi's Blue Devil basketball team won a total of twenty-five games, while losing eight during the 1948-49 season. The Demons took fifth place in the annual state tournament at Seattle after placing second in the district tourney. Height certainly was no problem for basketball coach R. M. "Boots" Wooten. All the Demons were six feet or over, and the team had an all-over average of 6' 2".

Junior captain Rich Mead played outstanding ball in the state tournament as he did throughout the season. Mead had a total of 350 points for the season to become the leading Devil scorer. The 6' 1" guard was named to the all-state second team. Mead was among the five top scorers in the state tournament.

Forward Dwight Morrison was also an outstanding player throughout the season. The 6'6" junior was the second highest Wa-Hi scorer with 335 points. "Big Red" Morrison was also among the top five state tourney scorers, giving Walla Walla two men in that select group. Morrison was named to the all-state third team.

Junior forward Larry Morrison, Dwight smaller 6' brother, completed the Wa-Hi forward combination of Morrison and Morrison, and contributed 181 points to the Blue and White cause during the season.

The two seniors of the starting lineup who won't be back next year are three year letterman guard Bob Andrews and two year letterman center 6'4" Terry Lynch. Andrews netted 189 points, and was a key defensive man in Coach Wooten's zone defense. Six foot, one inch Andrews was a cool ballplayer when under fire and the game was close. Terry Lynch was described as the best Wa-Hi player in the state tournament by Coach Wooten, although Terry failed to make any of the all-star teams. Lynch was the best defensive player of the team, and he used his height effectively on the backboards.

BASKETBALL

Two more seniors were included in the reserve list of the Wa-Hi team. They were guard Harold Dunham and forward Jim Mendell. Three juniors rounded out the squad. They were: Gordon Boyer, Dick "Wimpy" Fain, and Duane "Vic" Weitz. Senior Joe Figgins and junior Ben Phillips saw some action during the season. The manager was Dick Garver.

Coach Wooten will have little use for the crying towel next year with three boys of the first five returning, including the two highest scorers of this season.

Walla Walla was forced to use the back door in entering the state tournament for the twentieth time. The Demons beat Seattle Prep in their first district tourney test at Cheney. The second night the Devils disposed of Wenatchee to earn the right to meet Central Valley in the championship game the third night. Central Valley repulsed the Wa-Hi try, 50 to 32, forcing the Blue and White to play a second game with Seattle Prep to decide the number two district representative. The Devils took care of Prep for the second time, 37-30, to earn a ticket to Seattle. Besides the aforementioned teams, Pullman, Clarkston, and Omak also competed in the district play-off.

At the State tournament, a favored Wa-Hi team was beaten the first game by a second half Longview rally, 36 to 34. This forced the Blue Devils into the consolation round at the tournament where they defeated Snohomish, 49-37, and Nooksack Valley, 49-37, to earn the privilege of playing for the consolation championships and fifth place in the tournament. The Devils' opponent was Central Valley. C.V. was ahead 32-23 at the end of the third quarter. In the fourth period Wa-Hi put on the greatest rally of the tournament to overtake and beat Central Valley, 52-50. This gave Wa-Hi fifth and Central Valley eighth in the tourney.

BOXING

Walla Walla's boxing team had one of the most successful seasons in recent years during the campaign of 1948-49. The Blue Devil boxers won eight inter-school smokers while losing only one. Wa-Hi also won the district boxing championship for the first time in many years.

Senior Bill Erdman was elected team captain by his fellow mittmen and was awarded the Junior Chamber of Commerce captain trophy. Erdman completed his third year of fighting in the 140 pound class.

While winning the district title, the Satans collected four individual championships. All four boys that won this honor were sophomores. Bruce McKay won his title in the under-100 pound division. Steve Roeser fought off all comers at the district to win in the 120 lb. weight. Paul Gleaton, an outstanding boxer with two knockouts to his credit during the regular season, fought his way to the 135 pound championship. Lester "Zeke" West won his title in the 150 pound class.

Other boys that contributed points to the Wa-Hi cause at the tournament but didn't win championships were: LeRoy Deranleau, Mervin Shelton, Bob Morrison, Bill Erdman, Don Mason, Thure "Turk" Ahlquist, and Bob Yeager. Others boxers included Gene Mason, Jesse Mason, Don Hill, LeRoy Kirk, John Clark, and Bob Brinker. Boxing managers were Bill Patterson and Alvis Lane. Boxing Coach Pete Hanson was ably assisted this year by Chuck McBride.

The boxing outlook for the next few years is bright with four district champions having two more years of eligible competition remaining.

BASEBALL

If the Wa-Hi baseball team of 1949 lacked some things, it certainly wasn't returning lettermen. Twelve players returned from the previous season's squad. One of the toughest schedules in recent years faced the baseball team. Games were scheduled with Richland, Kennewick, Mac-Hi, Pendleton, Lewiston, Clarkston, and Yakima. The schedule embodied twenty games.

Coach R. M. "Boots" Wooten had a well-rounded team that showed the benefits of good coaching. The pitching staff was strong with five right handers and one southpaw doing the chores. Left hander Thure "Turk" Ahlquist turned in a creditable pitching performance as did Dick Fleck, the most consistent hurling choice of Coach Wooten. Juniors Gordon Boyer and Larry Morrison will be back next year to lend their talents to the 1950 team, as will sophomores Paul Gleaton and Gene LePage, who have two remaining years.

Senior Dick Neher started as catcher in the majority of the games this year. Able substitutes in this position were junior Bill Renick and sophomore Curtis Lange. Two juniors shared the first base position, with Rich Mead getting the nod most of the time. When Mead played in the outfield rangy Dwight Morrison took over. Wayne Heimbigner, a sophomore, was another first sacker; Roger Cummings was the regular second baseman. He will be back next season as will his replacement, Miles Lodmell. Larry Morrison played shortstop when he wasn't pitching. When he pitched, freshman Del Klicker moved from third base, where he regularly played, into the number six position. Senior Bill Hodges was used on third base as were Ken Moss and Jack McEvoy. All the outfielders turned in very good performances. Among the gardeners were Tom Turnbow, Gene Miller, and Myron Skubinna, all seniors. A junior that earned a regular centerfield position was Dick Fain. Bob Comfort was also used in the outfield. Arden Forrey, Dick Garver, and George Wagner were the managers.

The Blue Devils started off the season with a 2 to 1 triumph over Pendleton with Fleck winning his first game. Richland beat the Devils as did Yakima twice in the first two meetings of the two teams, 5-2 and 9-1. From these early season setbacks the Blue and White forces went on to win their share of the remaining games.

TRACK

The Walla Walla track team of 1949 turned in a very good performance under the efficient coaching of Mr. Charles McBride, who handled the field events, and Mr. Felix Fletcher, who handled the runners.

Two seniors broke records in early season meets. Jim Jansen broke the standing discus mark at the Milton Carnival of Speed by tossing the round plate 150 ft. 6 in. The old mark was 138 ft., 8 in. Bob Burkhart broke the Washington State College Invitational three-quarter mile mark by stepping off the distance in 3:25.1.

Other boys who usually placed in the track meets were: Jim Casper and Martin Hellberg, high jump; Jim Mendell and Ken Darr hurled the javelin; juniors Duane Weitz and Bob Morrison tossed the shot put; Ben Phillips and Dick Oelke were the Blue and White's pole vaulters; Dennis Fahey ran both the low and high hurdles; Herb West and Dale Warren were other low hurdlers; Bob Morrison also ran the high hurdlers. Wa-Hi's half mile relay team was one of the state's best. Bob Morris, Joe Figgins, Jim Davis, and Bob Fondahn were Wa-Hi's entry. Morris ran the 440 yard dash, while Fondahn, Davis, and Figgins competed in the 220 and 100 yd. dashes also. Another 440 man was Don Heimbigner. Vernon Schacht and Terry Lynch were entries in the 880 yard run. Seniors Bob Burkhart and Stan Wiley ran the mile. Jim Davis, besides being on the relay team and entering the 100 and 220 yard dashes, also was Wa-Hi's standout broad jumper.

Wa-Hi started off the season by beating Mac-Hi in the year's first dual meet, 74 to 47. Walla Walla's team had several entries in the Carnival of Speed. The Blue Devils beat Richland in the second dual meet of the season, and tied for second in the W.S.C. Invitational meet. North Central won the Invitational and Wa-Hi and Pendleton tied for second. Other meets the thinclads participated in were the Wa-Hi Relays, a dual meet with Yakima, and the district and state meets.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Besides the regular gym class required of all girls for the first two years, any girl interested can participate in intramural sports such as volleyball, speedball, basketball, tennis, etc. Points toward a sports letter are awarded for participation in these activities and such letters are presented twice yearly in award assemblies. A girl obtaining one hundred points is eligible to belong to the Girls' Athletic Association, more commonly known as G.A.A., under the direction of Mrs. Houghton. The group organizes sports and elects managers for the various sports. They were: speedball, Joyce Newman; volleyball, Carol Johns; basketball, Marilyn DeBoer; softball, Lois Hastings; archery, Diane Wilson; table tennis, Lois Hastings; badminton, Clara Huie; and tennis, Beate Brink.

In team sports homerooms compete against each other or in the case of too few athletically inclined girls in a homeroom, two or three are combined. Taking first in speedball was a mixed team under Lois Hastings as captain. Homeroom 117 under Arlene Clemenson took first in volleyball. Homerooms 315 and 316 under Jean Newman took first in basketball. At the end of each year the homeroom which wins the most competitions receives a plaque which they are entitled to keep for the following year. This past year the plaque has adorned Miss Pfeiffer's homeroom and 117 is endeavoring to keep it there.

Under the present system of awards many girls earned letters and stripes this year. However, next year a new system will go into effect whereby girls are not permitted to wear stripes.

The past year marks the first year of archery as one of the intramural sports.

The girls' volleyball team performed once at the halftime of a basketball game and the tumbling team has appeared several times before the public. The turnout for all sports this year has been unusually large and perhaps the success of the season is due to this.

YELL SQUAD

The yell squad, composed of Queen Carol Cox and King Bob Jones, and junior members, Bill Lloyd and Betty Pollard, were always on hand to lead the student body in hearty cheering throughout the football and basketball season. Regular pep assemblies were held in the gym prior to the games to encourage pep and attendance. These pep assemblies consisted of a variety of yells, skits, band numbers and some student participation in contests. Two very successful serpentines were held during football season in which many students participated. All this plus the huge Homecoming Parade were headed by the Yell Squad. This parade included seventeen beautiful floats, the Wa-Hi band, representatives of the visiting teams and decorated cars. The floats were sponsored by the various school clubs and organizations. Because of the high competitive spirit, the floats were extremely attrative this year, the cup being won by Gimmel Teth. Another feature of this year's activities was the burning of the "W" at the homecoming game. The yell staff was also responsible for any send-offs before the departure of the team.

Near the end of each school year, tryouts are held to select juniors who campaign for the two positions left vacant by the graduating seniors. The boy and girl elected then become Yell King and Queen during their senior year.

SHUFFLE SHOP

As the school year draws to a close, we look back and see that the Shuffle Shop has been the scene of many student activities.

After Bob Williams, Shuffle Shop Commissioner, pulled the Shuffle Shop out of the red in the early part of the year, the commissioners, under the guidance of Miss Virginia Pitts, Shuffle Shop adviser, planned and gave two successful parties on Halloween and New Year's Eve.

The Shuffle Shop was the scene of two play cast parties to celebrate the conclusion of the successful Senior and All-School plays. The commissioner promoted a new idea to bring out larger crowds by changing the time the club would be open from every day except Sunday to only Wednesday and Saturday nights. Also, on Friday nights it could be found open if there were no school activities. This change made possible a lower ticket price.

The student body president appointed Bob Williams as Commissioner of Shuffle Shop, and Bob, in turn, appointed his assistants. They were Don Ramer, senior, in charge of finances; Priscilla Clem, junior, in charge of the snack bar; Suzanne Skubinna, sophomore, head of ticket sales; and Rolly Jones, freshman, appointed the second semester to keep up the supplies.

To earn points for the service plaque the clubs of Wa-Hi cleaned, painted, decorated, and donated equipment to the club. The Shuffle Shop has capably served its purpose as a meeting place and social center for the Wa-Hi student body.

ROYAL BLUE BALL

The Royal Blue Ball was presented on December 3 this year by the Annual Staff of '48 and '49.

The big thrill of the evening was the moment Mr. Jones announced that Phyllis Tanner had been elected Queen of the Ball with Joanne Stringham and Joan Lee Robinson as princesses.

A new note in the line of music featured the Wa-Hi dance orchestra. A contest for the name of the orchestra was sponsored by the Annual with "Seven Teeners" being the name chosen. Dennis Fahey received a free ticket to the dance for submitting this name.

Decorations were outstanding. Multi-colored balloons were floating everywhere and an image of the front of an Annual, with silver stars added, formed the background for the Queen's throne. A very unusual effect was produced with a punch bowl hollowed out of a block of ice. Little devils with initials of the couples attending the dance written on them were clever also.

GIMMEL TETH'S WINNING FLOAT

HOMECOMING

This year, for the second time, the students and alumni of Wa-Hi celebrated Homecoming. The festivities on November 5th and 6th included a parade with thirteen clever floats, a football game and a dance.

The whole affair was sponsored by the student cabinet.

Gimmel Teth was awarded the trophy for the best float.

The King and Queen of the celebration were Bob Andrews and Louise Smith. Their court included Marilyn Armes and Stan Wiley and Gwen Willis and Bob Williams.
